RULES

OF THE

LEIGHTONIAN LIBRARY OF DUNBLANE.

1mo,

THAT any person may be admitted as Civis, upon obtaining the consent of two of the Trustees, and paying five shillings; which payment he shall repeat yearly, on or before the day of the meeting of Trustees, in December.

2do, A Civis may have two volumes folio, or three volumes quarto, or four volumes octavo, &c. at a time.

3tio, That no book shall be kept longer, by any Civis, than two months, under the penalty of one shilling; if it is kept three months, two shillings; if four months, four shillings: After which, the Librarian shall write the person so transgressing, to return the book within a fort-

(iv)

fortnight from the date of the letter, which, if he does not obey, he shall be altogether deprived of his right as Civis.

4^{to}, The Librarian is not to give out any books to a person who has not paid the yearly rate, and the fines he may have incurred.

5^{to}, The Civis shall be responsible for any damage done to the books, while in their hands, or in the carriage.
